MARRIED IN WASHINGTON.

Miss Rose A. Harvey, daughter of Mrs. Annie Harvey (nee Neale), formerly of this city, and the late Wm. Harvey of Washington, and granddaughter of the late Charles L. Neale, was married at 11 o'clock yesterday morning, at the church of the Immaculate Conception in Washington, to Mr. Daniel McEllin, of Long Island, N. Y. Rev. Ambrose Beaman performed the ceremony in the presence of the family and a few intimate friends. Miss Catherine Birrell, of this city, was bridesmaid and Mr. Charles Smith, of New York, acted as best man. After the ceremony a luncheon was tendered the bride and members of the family by Mr. and Mrs. George Daw, cousin of the bride, at their home at Mt. Pleasant, D. C. Mr. and Mrs. McEllin left on an afternoon train for their future home at Richmond Hill, Long Island, N. Y.

BIBLE RETURNED.

A family Bible which was found in Alexandria during the civil war has, after a period of over forty years, been returned to the owner by a lady in Philadelphia. With it was sent a daguerotype found at the same time and place of a child, a beautiful little girl, who lies upon a couch, her hands filled with flowers. The faded picture appeals to one's tenderest emotions. The lovely infantile features and rounded form scarce gives a hint of death, and yet in gazing on it one realizes that a mother's arms have finally yielded her darling. Around the miniature under the glass is engraved: "Lavinia Triplett, born August 20, 1850. Died November 19, 1853." The miniature has been placed in the Confederate Museum, Lee Camp Hall.

RIVER THIEVES.

It is said that many robberies are committed on the river front that are not reported to the police. Warehouses are often entered and goods stolen, while thieves at times rob the cabins of vessels lying at the wharves. The annoyance occasioned by "wharf rats" is becoming a serious matter, and it is alleged that certain owners of small vessels who recently discharged cargoes in Washington and afterwards stop at this port to buy provisions, etc., now make their purchases in the capital city in order to avoid having their vessels robbed while lying at Alexandria docks.

CIRCUIT COURT FOR THE CITY.

[Judge J. B. T. Thornton, presiding] A special session of the court is being held today to try the damage suit of G. E. Sullivan against the Washington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon Electric Railway Company, in which the plaintiff seeks to recover damages in the sum of $10,000 for injuries alleged to have been sustained in an accident on the defendant company's road at the intersection of Cameron and Henry streets, February 27, 1908, when an electric car and an engine on the Southern Railway were in collision.

WORK ON NEW MILL.

The concrete work of the new mill now being erected by W. A. Smoot & Co., north Columbus street, was completed yesterday, and the construction of the building will be pushed as rapidly as possible. Work on the warehouse at the southwest corner of Cameron and Union streets is in progress. In digging the foundation for the warehouse the laborers struck the foundation of a wharf which probably existed in colonial days when the river shore extended west to Lee street.

VEPERS SERVICE.

Next Sunday night the Knights of Columbus will give a solemn vespers service in St. Mary's Church in honor of Rev. Wm. Delaney, who is a member of their council. The vespers will be sung by the choir of St. Paul's church, of Washington, sixty members, under direction of Prof. Winchester. The Knights will march from the Lyceum to the church, preceded by the choir, escorted by the fourth degree members. All are invited.

ARRIVAL OF THE POCAHONTAS.

The barge Pocahontas, in tow of the tugboat Mitchell Davis, arrived at 9 o'clock last night. An attempt was made to dock the barge between Prince and Duke streets, but failing in this, it was anchored in the river opposite Cameron and Queen streets. The Pocahontas will be used in the excursion business this summer.

ELEOTION OF OFFICERS.

Samarian Rebekah Lodge, No. 27, I. O. O. F., held a very interesting meeting last night at which the following officers were elected: Noble grand, Mrs. Anderson; vice grand, Mrs. Miller; recording secretary, Mrs. James H. Mansfield; financial secretary, W. L. Martin; treasurer, Mrs. Edward Padgett; and chaplain, Mrs. Fannie Klodon.

OATFISH PLENTIFUL.

The fishermen are operating troil lines in the river and having unexpected success in catching catfish, as they land from 100 to 200 pounds daily. A day or two ago Mr. Alpheus Bobey caught one of this class of fish which weighed 14 pounds. They are high priced and quick sellers in the northern markets.

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES.

The commencement exercises incident to the close of the eighth session of the Episcopal Seminary, near this city, took place at ten o'clock this morning. The professors, alumni and students with the president, Bishop Gibson, formed a procession shortly before that hour in Prayer Hall, and marched to the chapel when the professors and students took their appointed places in the choir. The president opened the exercises with prayer after which certificates were given to the following members of the senior class: Messrs. Joseph W. Falford, Benjamin W. B. McKinley, Minor Julius Peters, Zachary T. Vincent, Jr., and Joseph Williams. There is one graduate this year, Mr. William George McDowell, Jr., B. H., of the diocese of Southern Virginia, to whom the diploma of graduation was given. Mr. McDowell was also recommended for the degree of bachelor in divinity which will be conferred upon him after writing an approved thesis and on his ordination to the priesthood.

The following clergymen received the degree of Bachelor in Divinity: Rev. Henry St. George Tucker, M. A., president of St. Paul's College, Tokyo; Rev. Middleton Stuart Barnwell, B. A., assistant at Christ Church, Baltimore; Rev. William Russell Bowie, M. A., minister at Greenwood, Albemarle county, Virginia; Rev. Oustis Fletcher, B. A., of the diocese of Lexington, Ky., and Rev. Robert A. Griese, Ph. D., of Hamburg, N. Y. The subject of the graduation essay which was read by Mr. William G. McDowell, Jr., was "The Prophet as the Man for his Age." An earnest address was delivered to the members of the senior class by Rev. Dr. Morris, of the Monumental Church, Richmond, after which Bishop Gibson made the announcement that by a resolution of the board of trustees the annual session of the Seminary would hereafter open on the fourth Wednesday in September instead of on the third Wednesday; accordingly the session of 1909-10 will open on the 22nd of September next. The exercises then closed with the singing of the hymn "Blest Be The Tie That Binds" and the pronouncing of the benediction by Bishop Gibson, president of the Seminary. There was a good attendance of visitors and friends of the Seminary at the commencement, including a number from this city.

The annual meeting of the alumni convened in the chapel at noon. Bishop Gravit, coadjutor, of West Virginia, taking the place of the president Bishop Peterkin, who was compelled to be absent. After the presentation of the senior class to the alumni standing and their reception as members of the association the essay was read by Rev. T. J. Packard, D. D., of Rockville, Md., the subject being "Practical Catholicism." It was a very able and interesting essay. Other general business was subsequently transacted by the Alumni.

At the Alumni dinner Mr. Joseph Parkard, acted as toastmaster and several interesting addresses were made.

There was a good attendance of the Alumni and visitors at the Seminary today.

Last night at 8 o'clock the annual missionary sermon was preached by Rev. Prof. Khlinder, of the Cambridge Episcopal Theological Seminary. The missionary services, which were largely attended, were read by Rev. Edmund Lee, of How Kow, China, who is on his vacation in this country.

AMUSEMENTS.

The three amusement houses were well patronized last night and the vaudeville and pictures put on were of a quality to excite admiration. The Alexandria Amusement Company had a fine selection of pictures and those who attended expressed themselves as highly pleased. The handsome prize was given at 8:45 and another will be given tonight.

The Surprise Theatre had a huge crowd last night and the marvelous feats of Ed Howard, the champion iron-jawed artist of the world, was more than worth the price paid for admission. There will be an entire new show at this house tonight. Don't fail to see it.

The Opera House is growing in favor nightly and the vaudeville put on is of a class which commands respect. Last night the Johnson-Downey Stock Co., put on "The Wages of Sin," in such a manner that the applause at each scene was deafening. Tonight the Johnson-Downey Stock Company will present for the first time the comedy drama, "Why Woman Love."

NO MORE ALARMS.

Mr. J. W. Crews, tariff superintendent of this division of the Bell Telephone Company, came here from Richmond today and held a conference with the fire wardens. He stated that his company had been used in several of the states for sending fire alarms turned in to "central" but which had turned out to be wrong and that at any time such action might be taken in Alexandria against his company. He said that as the telephones in the engine houses in this city were not paid for, and the services rendered the city in turning in fire alarms were gratuitous on the part of the company, he would like to have some understanding as to the city's attitude in this respect. The fire wardens advised him to see Mr. C. B. Marshall, chairman of the Council committee on public property. This he did, and after a very amicable conference Mr. Crews left stating that no change would be made in the matter, and that whenever better service could be rendered this city his company would do so.

Down life highway we travel, you and we with a cheering word and a merry song. Suddenly we come to a fork in the roadway and find ourselves wondering which way to turn. One road is marked the Path to Duty, the other is the Road to Indolence. We look down the latter and find it a beautiful boulevard gaily bedecked with sweet-scented flowers and gorgeous singing birds. But look ye, down toward the end of that road there hangs an ominous cloud.—The Path to Duty we find, is a narrow stony way, without any special attraction except that it leads toward our journey's end. The sun is shining and we find the Path to Duty and all those irresistibly delicious Auto Products. Sylvan Blodgett, The Auto Stand, City Market.
